“There Shall Be No Night There”

No night of gloom, to drop between our eyes
And smiling summer skies?

No slow paced night of gnawing pain, to creep
Between our eyes and sleep?

No night of woe, to shut all dear delight
Out from our longing sight?

No night of sin, to grow and never cease
Betwixt our hearts and peace?

No night of death, to darken drearily
Between our souls and Thee?

Ah, through these nights guide us sweet Lord, we pray,
Up to that nightless Day!

—By W. M. L. Jay

The Pastor's Christmas Greeting

I commend you to God this Christmas,
For I know that He is able and strong,
And will never one moment forget you
Notwithstanding the way may be long.
In the year that will shortly be dawning
He will live out his life in you still,
If you will only quietly let Him
Work unhindered, His wonderful will.

The Pastor's Christmas Greeting

Work unhindered, His wonderful will
If you will only quietly let Him
He will live out his life in you still.
In the year that will shortly be dawning
Notwithstanding the way may be long
And will never one moment forget you
For I know that He is able and strong,
I commend you to God this Christmas.

"There were added to the church daily such as were being saved."---Acts 2:47.
